Summary: On September 19, 2010, at about 1314 hours, Carlsbad Police responded to a serious injury traffic collision in the driveway of one of the homes in the 3500 block of Celinda Drive in Carlsbad, CA. Carlsbad Police and Fire Department personnel responded and located an elderly female lying in the driveway with head and torso injuries.

The preliminary investigation indicated that an elderly female was backing a vehicle out of the driveway. The victim, another elderly female was behind the vehicle and, as the vehicle was backing, caught her between the left rear of the backing vehicle and another parked vehicle in the driveway. As the backing movement proceeded, the victim was released from between the vehicles and fell to the ground.

The victim was transported via the Carlsbad Fire Department to the football field at Carlsbad High School, where she was transported to Scripps La Jolla Trauma Hospital via air ambulance.

No drugs or alcohol are suspected in this collision. The name of the victim is being withheld pending notification of the next of kin by the Medical Examiner's Office.

The victim's condition is unknown at the time of this writing. The investigation is continuing.
